

Lodging at Mountain Lens

The Fox Den	$200/night or $100/bed	Four Beds Available
The Bird House	$200/night or $100/bed	Four Beds Available
Tree House	$200/night or $100/bed	Three Beds Available

The Fox Den is an entire ground level suite in the Bamboo Cottage. The suite has two bedrooms, one bath, and can sleep a total of four people and also has a queen sleeper sofa for two more guests. There is a well-equipped kitchen and spacious great room to relax in front of a 42" flat-screen TV with Apple TV and high-speed WiFi. The well equipped kitchen features a two burner cooktop, large toaster oven, large microwave, Keurig Coffee Maker, full size refrigerator and dining area for four.

The Bird House is a plush modern 2nd floor apartment with its own private entrance. It has a light-filled living room with a 40" Smart TV / Apple TV and high speed WiFi. The bedroom has a queen and an extra long twin connecting with bath there is also another extra long twin in the common area. The kitchenette features large toaster oven, large microwave, Keurig Coffee Maker, apartment size refrigerator, and dining area for four.

The Tree House is an upper level large studio apartment with open living room area, dining area, well equipped kitchenette, a queen bed and extra long twin bed and a full bath. This very comfortable studio apartment includes high-definition TVs and high-speed WiFi. The kitchenette features large toaster oven, large microwave, Keurig Coffee Maker, apartment size refrigerator, and dining area for four.

Mountain Lens' luxury amenities includes a flagstone patio with outdoor seating, bbq grill and a swing for two. Walk to the waterfalls, along meandering creeks over footbridges on the mile-long groomed trails, without leaving this beautiful wilderness.

Contact: april@mountainlens.com 828-230-3685 and jeff@mountainlens.com 828-691-5367